Akiyoshidai Plateau

Akiyoshido Cave

<Ruriko-ji Temple Five-Storeyed Pagoda (national treasure)>

This has been designated as a national treasure, and it is one of Japan's three most famous pagodas because of its beauty. In the evenings, it is lit up from sundown to around 10 p.m., so nighttime viewing can also be enjoyed.

<Akiyoshido Cave>

This is one of the best of Japan's large limestone caves, and it features numerous mysterious natural forms that were created over hundreds of thousands of years. It has been designated as a Special Natural Monument of the nation.

Taikodani Inari Shrine

Catholic Church

<Taikodani Inari Shrine>

This is one of Japan's five great Inari shrines.

At the path approaching the shrine, which is climbed on foot, vermilion-lacquered torii gates are lined up to form what looks like a tunnel, and this is a spectacular sight. At this shrine, deities are prayed to for success in business, good fortune, and protection from evil.

- There are restrictions regarding itinerary changes, and in some cases a prescribed cancellation fee is charged.

When applying with the Travel Terms Document (summary), please make sure to receive the Travel Terms Document (full text) and confirm its content before submitting your application.

• Agent-organized tour contract

The abovementioned travel is planned and implemented by Yamaguchi Tourism & Convention; located at 2-1 Sodayu-cho, Yamaguchi City, Yamaguchi Prefecture; Travel Agency Registered by the Governor of Yamaguchi Prefecture No. 2-140 (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"), and customers participating in the abovementioned travel need to conclude an agent-organized tour contract (hereinafter the "Tour Contract") with the Company. The travel terms shall be based on the details below, as well as the Travel Terms Document (full text), which will be provided separately, a finalization document referred to as the "final itinerary," which will be provided prior to departure, and the agent-organized tour contract stated in the travel-agency terms & conditions of the Company. Matters not stipulated in the terms & conditions of the Company shall be in accordance with laws and ordinances and generally established practices.

• Contract application and timing of contract finalization

- When applying, please fill in the prescribed items on the prescribed application form and then submit your application.
- In the case of applying by telephone, postal mail, facsimile, or another means of communication, please submit your application form after the Company has notified you that your reservation has been approved.
- The Tour Contract shall be deemed to be finalized when the Company has approved the conclusion of the contract and has received the application fee.
- Application fee (per person): full amount of the travel cost

• Cancellation fee

After the Tour Contract has been finalized, if the contract is canceled due to circumstances on the part of customer, a cancellation fee shall be charged in the amount described below.

- Cancellation on or before the 21st day (11th day in the case of a day trip) before "the day before the starting date of the travel": no charge
- Cancellation on or after the 20th day (10th day in the case of a day trip) before "the day before the starting date of the travel" (excluding Items 3 to 6): 20% of the travel cost
- Cancellation on or after the seventh day before "the day before the starting date of the travel" (excluding Items 4 to 6): 30% of the travel cost
- Cancellation on the day before the starting date of the travel (excluding Items 5 to 6): 40% of the travel cost
- Cancellation on the starting date of the travel (excluding Item 6): 50% of the travel cost
- Cancellation after the travel has started or non-participation without notice: 100% of the travel cost

• What is included in the travel cost

This shall consist of the taxi fare, a fee for the tour guide-interpreter/tour conductor, admission fees, entrance fees, and consumption taxes. In the case that some of the abovementioned expenses have not been incurred due to circumstances on the part of the customer, in principle the difference shall not be refunded. (Meal costs are not included.)

• Enrollment in domestic travel insurance

In the case that an injury has been sustained during travel, large amounts of medical-treatment expenses, transportation expenses, and so on may be incurred. Furthermore, in the case of an accident, lodging a claim against the person at fault and receiving compensation can sometimes be very difficult. Thus, in order to have security regarding such situations, independently enrolling in domestic travel insurance of a sufficient amount is recommended.

• Reporting accidents, etc.

In the case that an accident, etc. has occurred during the travel, please immediately notify the contact person that the Company provided you on your final itinerary. (If notifying the contact person right away is not possible, please notify the contact person as soon as it becomes possible.)

• Handling of personal information

In regard to personal information that has been written on the application form that was submitted when applying for the travel, the Company shall use this for communication with the customer, and shall use this within the scope necessary for procedures for transportation and services provided by accommodation facilities and so on during the travel for which the customer has applied.

• Reference date for travel terms and travel costs

The reference date for these travel terms is July 1, 2020. The travel costs have been calculated referring to the fares and regulations valid as of July 1, 2020. The Company shall not re-implement travel under any circumstances.
